

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Tyler Woodard. Until just recently, I was Tyler's immediate supervisor for several years. I found him to be a commitment and engaged team member who strived to consistently deliver profitable and risk appropriate sales results. His interpersonal skills are exemplary and appreciated by everyone who works with him.

Besides being a joy to work with, Tyler has been an advocate for his clients while working to ensure that he presents financing offers consistent with the company's objectives and goals. During Tyler's tenure, we saw an increase in both new business generation and overall profits. The new revenue was a direct result of the sales and marketing plans executed by Tyler.

Tyler's drive, creativity, and result oriented nature made him a valuable asset to the company and should serve him well in any new venture he chooses to pursue.

In closing, I highly recommend Tyler for any role he feels comfortable applying for. He is a team player and would make a great asset to any organization. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Tom Glazier
